Greetings

After nearly six months here in Thailand, we see a pattern emerging— Follow God’s lead. Show love. People respond. Repeat.

Back in School After School

We have worked out new arrangements with Kai to teach English at her place one evening a week— stories, games, and songs, with emphasis on games. ‘Concentration’ comes in many colors, flavors, opposites, etc.

Aerobics in the Park

We have been invited to join an aerobics group in the nearby park where we gather afterward to exchange Thai and English lessons. These wonderful ladies have given us Thai names and seem to enjoy our halting attempts to pick up their language.

Ladies in the Cafe

We gather Saturday afternoons in George’s classroom for coffee and conversation... with three or four women who are parents of students in the adjoining classroom. But we have much more fun. Margot pours and adds lots of sugar and a little spice... We even study a little English!

Ministries in the Neighborhood

Margot's involvement with CWEFT continues. She has joined Dang every Saturday morning to teach English to fourth and fifth graders at the day-care center/pre-school in a tenement area of Bangkok.

Feb 14th was a special Valentine's day for us. We both went to the tenement area to distribute gifts of clothing and food to the seniors along with many hugs and prayers.

Sweethearts in the Shop

"Would you like coffee or tea? Espresso or Americano?" Simple conversation, delicious coffee, darling couple. Boon and Opal have opened the doors of their coffee/antique shop to study English with us. We pray God will open their hearts to hearing the Gospel message as well.

In Closing

Parting thought— whether on this side of the world or the other side, our Lenten journey takes us to the foot of Mt Calvary, where our Lord Jesus laid down his life for us. We will meet you there next month on Good Friday.

Serving with you in Him,
George & Margot
