

FRETZnet March 2018

Newsletter

This Holy Week brings us back to Mt Calvary, where we meditate on the greatest love story ever told and witness the greatest love ever shown.

My song is love unknown, my Savior's love to me... Love to the loveless shown, that I might lovely be...

Greetings

Relationships... Meeting people, finding common interests... They need to know you're going to be around a while... And they love to teach you a few phrases in their language...

Back in School After School

Our recent sessions with Kai and her after-school kids has given us time for story telling in addition to songs and games. This week we guided them through the events of Holy Week (with a little help from Kai, our interpreter.)

Aerobics in the Park

The aerobics ladies enjoy our company... if the number of food samples offered is any indication! We try our best to remember their names and one or two new Thai phrases each week. Lekki (white cap) just lost her mother, which gives us an opening to share with her the hope that Jesus gives us.

Newest Student

Petch, who may only stay with us a short while, is a self-taught English student who watches American movies without Thai subtitles. This week he stretched my memory when he asked about the four American presidents on Mt Rushmore. And next week he would like a short synopsis of Bible characters! Opportunity knocks... Remember to pray as we share Jesus with Petch.

English Summer Camp

Our teaching teams were invited to spend a week at Wat Laksi elementary school. They made this special banner to highlight our week with them.

George and Margot were with second and third graders; Dennis and Robin with fourth and fifth graders. Opportunity came with challenges— how to connect at a very beginner level and hold their interest for an hour and a half. Answer: lots of games and songs. ‘Father Abraham’ and Bingo went over well.

We hope to be invited back next month for a teachers’ workshop, which allows George more time to work on his magic tricks.

Sweethearts in the Shop

Coffee or tea? Angels or fairies? Who is Jesus? Boon and Opal are asking some leading questions, giving us opportunity to explain that Jesus loves all people, not just Westerners. Keep praying for follow-up opportunities.

In Closing

HE IS RISEN! HE IS RISEN INDEED!

We know that our Redeemer lives. He lives in each of us— the One who died and is alive forever more.

George and Margot