What a Privilege

It has been an awesome journey-- to see the Lord at work in us and through us. One young couple whom we see occasionally at the market remarked, "Many people will miss you after you leave."

Boon and Opal...

They continue to delight us with their eagerness to learn, enjoying activities (cooking class) with us, and their beginning steps of faith.

After School...

Never a dull moment. Last week: 'The Tortoise and the Hare', this week: 'Green Eggs and Ham'. We'll see how they like their eggs....

Learning from our Students

Moch is a busy manager of a team that installs surveillance videos. Interesting conversationalist.

My newest student Neptune is a budding entrepreneur and an aspiring model. Wait till you see her photo next month... We are so thankful Jesus has given us time to be in the community where we can meet new people.

Friends in the Park

Margot gets a friendly greeting every time she jogs through the park, often from people she has only met in passing. This gardening lady always gives her a high five.

Aerobics Ladies...

Leky celebrated her birthday in grand style. Starting with breakfast in the park and later that evening with a few friends at our local karaoke bar. Some of them we didn't recognize all dressed up. Can you spot the three ladies in both photos?

Thai Village

The Lutheran churches of Chiang Mai sponsor Thai Village, a workshop/training center, where low-income people can learn a viable trade. We met with the dedicated staff and some of the skilled craftsmen. We bought samples of their handmade crafts for 'show and tell' back home.

Making Christmas ornaments out of tin.

Into Light Church Retreat

Our theme was 'Growing in Christ', with many opportunities for active participation.

Growing in fellowship—crafts, games, songs, campfire, and meals together with our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Closing Thought...

Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to do far more abundantly than all we ask or think, to him be glory... unto all generations, forever and ever. Amen. Eph 3:20-21
