5 Finger "Tips" for choosing a Book to Read

All Fingers
Down Not for you.

4
Fingers
Down
Try another book.

3
Fingers
Down
You may need help to read this.

Fingers
Down
You are okay to read this.

1
Finger
Down
Good choice.

1. Open your book near the middle.
2. Open your hand so your fingers are straight.
3. Read the page in your book.
4. Put down one finger for each word you miss.
5. Use the fingertips to help you know if this book is on your level.

Summer Reading List

Dear Future Third Grader!

I am really looking forward to seeing you in August!

In order to keep your reading skills sharp, I have attached a summer reading list. Instead of just a list of books to read, it is a bingo game! Your job is to complete one row or column by the end of the summer. It is due the first day of school. You will be able to take AR tests on the books you read.

Please follow the instructions on the attached sheets. I have also included a handy guide to help you choose books that are appropriate for your level.

There will be a prize for everyone who completes at least 1 row or column (5 squares) by the start of school in August!
Good luck and happy reading!

Blessings,

Mrs. Baxter

Color in the squares that you finish this summer. You can read the books yourself or someone can read to you.

Try to get five in a row.

Can you read all the books and color in ALL 25 of the squares?

Bring this back to school next year and show your teacher or librarian!
